The Authority solicits and encourages Small Minority and Women's Business Enterprises participation.

The Housing Authority of Bergen County reserves the right to reject any or all bids, waive any identified informalities or technicalities in the bidding, sever or make awards of all or parts of any bids to one or more responsible bidders if it is in the best interest of the Authority to do so. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, any bid which is incomplete, obscure, or irregular may be rejected, any bid in which unit prices are omitted, or in which unit/total prices are unbalanced, may be rejected. The Authority also reserves the right to reject the bid of any respondent who has previously failed to perform properly, or to complete on time any contract work of a similar nature or who is not in a position to perform the contract. No bid shall be withdrawn for a period of sixty (60) days subsequent to the bid opening without the consent of the Housing Authority of Bergen County.

The Housing Authority of Bergen County further reserves the right to award each item separately to the lowest responsible bidder meeting specifications or to make an award based on the total bid to the bidder whose total sum is the low bid meeting the specifications, whichever in the awarding authorities' opinion is in the best interest of the Housing Authority of Bergen County. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, the Authority reserves the right to award a contract based on either option that may be described in the bid proposal or based on any combination thereof.

The Housing Authority of Bergen County reserves the right to award equal or tie bids at their discretion to any one of the tie bidders. Should the bidder, to whom the contract is awarded, fail to enter into a contract, the Authority may then, at its option, accept the bid of the next lowest responsible bidder.

Notice of contract award will be given to the general public and to unsuccessful respondents within 10 days of the contract award.
